About IILM

IILM was established in 1993 and is a premier business school in India. The motto of IILM has been to impart quality education in the field of management. Its faculty strives to equip young people from all over the country to make meaningful contributions to an economy that is increasingly becoming a significant entity in the global arena.

IILM achieved another milestone in its exponential growth by establishing IILM University, Gurugram vide Haryana Government Gazette Notification No 57-2018/Ext dated 06 Apr 2018.

IILM University offers various programs under the concept of Liberal Education. It is an approach to learning that empowers individuals and prepares them to deal with complexity, diversity, and change. It provides students with broad knowledge of the wider world (e.g. science, culture, and society) as well as in-depth study in a specific area of interest. A liberal education helps students develop a sense of social responsibility, as well as strong and transferable intellectual and practical skills such as communication, analytical and problem-solving skills, and a demonstrated ability to apply knowledge and skills in real-world settings. IILM University, Gurugram enables students to choose from a wide range of options in Design & Fashion, Liberal Arts, Management, Computer Science and Technology.

As a global initiative, it has entered into academic tie ups with universities across the world.

Our Logo

IILM is a seat of holistic learning.

In Persian, IILM, or “iilm” means Knowledge. IILM communicates a place for seeking and attaining education and wisdom.

Our logo depicts the rising Sun, which, in the words of Swami Vivekananda, is symbolic of Jnana, within the universal symbol of the temple of learning.

The three elements in the IILM logo combine a book, a swan and a lamp. The book symbolizes learning.

Swami Vivekananda has written that the Swan stands for the Paramatman (Supreme Self) Bhagwan Sri SathyaSai Baba, in His Deepavali Day Discourse on 5th Nov 1991, explained that the flame of a lamp has two qualities. One is to banish darkness. The other is continuous upward movement. Even when a lamp is kept in a pit, the flame moves upwards. The sages have therefore adored the lamp of wisdom as the flame that leads men to higher states.

Code of Conduct

As an employee: You should keep in mind some constants that are the foundation of our success—past present and future. There are six things that glue us together in pursuit of our institute.

These are Integrity, Quality, Innovation, Specialization, Respect and Results.

Integrity
Without integrity, nothing else matters. This means doing what we say we will do... internally and externally... in all cases.

Quality
Going the extra mile in each of your endeavours and heading towards our vision ―leader in responsible management education and business focused research.

Innovation
This has been a hallmark of our history and is the lifeblood of our future. We possess a great deal of intellectual capital, which we must leverage to innovative approaches for our students by maximizing their learning value-add from entry to exit and to use it further in the competitive marketplace. Our culture is of continuous improvement and total quality that encourages creativity and innovation

Specialization
The dictionary defines specialization as —the distinctive mark of quality, of service excellence.

Respect
We must respect and support all those we can come in contact with and operate in a professional manner.

Results
The greatest challenge will be to make something happen for your student that is positive and lasting, something that creates value. In the final analysis, achievement of results for the students, within the boundaries of our value system, is what matters most in our institute.

Conduct Rules
Every staff member shall, at all times, maintain absolute integrity, decorum of conduct devotion and commitment to duty. DO’s AND DONT’s

Here are a few general rules and a principle an employee of IILM is expected to remain mindful of:

ALWAYS

- Conducts himself/herself in accordance with the highest, ethical standards, remembering that the definition of a Professional, that we like best, is that of a person who places the students” interest above considerations of personal financial gain.”
- Is neatly dressed and groomed.
- Is pleasant, tactful and considerate in manner, remembering to lead rather than drive people.
- Is on schedule and requests assistance, when falling behind is anticipated.
- Is always quick to respond to students queries or messages.
- Remembers that the students ultimate benefit is more important than his/her possible interim annoyance.
- Stays out of politics and tries to put himself/herself in the other person’s place when exist differences of opinion.
- Professional and business email etiquette and responsibility are expected of all faculty and staff members.
- Internal communication between employees is strictly for internal use and must not be forwarded/shared with persons outside.
- Also when communicating with outsiders, email to internal colleagues must be marked with discretion and should be on strictly need basis

NEVER

- Promises more than he/she expects to be able to deliver
- Lies or misrepresents anything, either to students, subordinates or superiors
- Acts on primary reactions, always considers the consequences of any stand or action, checks himself/herself when necessary
- Fails to communicate weekly in writing with superior and designated, other recipients of weekly reports
- Criticizes surroundings, local habits, foods
- Gets involved in political arguments, national or international, or such controversial topics as race and religion
- Criticizes others in a non-constructive way or in the presence of third parties
- Faculty and staff cannot enter into any contract or agreement on behalf of the institute without a specific written authorization from either the Trustee/Secretary or the Director of the institute. Any such contract or agreement signed will be null and void and the institute will not be responsible for the consequences. In this regard the institute reserves its right to initiate appropriate legal action against the concerned persons.
Mentoring

IILM follows an intensive mentoring program for all its students. The faculty is actively involved in a personalized mentoring process for students. Each faculty is assigned the role of a — mentor and is expected to counsel, maintain discipline and motivate their mentees (students). The mentoring process works at three levels-personal, academic and for the professional development of the students.

The roles and responsibilities of the mentors broadly include:

- Ensuring overall integration of the student with the program –academically and psychologically.
- Counseling and motivating the students.
- Managing discipline & conduct related issues of the set of assigned students.
- Counseling the students to ensure adherence to attendance norms and be responsible for their self-learning.
- Ensuring personal and professional development of mentee.
- Mentoring second year students with special attention on their preparation for the placements.
- Upon announcement of pre-placement talks and interviews, mentors should make sure they spend time with their mentees in order to enable them to understand themselves better and be better prepared for the interviews.
- Keeping in touch with placement managers to be able to guide mentees effectively.

However, in case of staff of admission office they shall be avail LTA only during the months from July to December irrespective of the month in which such employees becomes eligible for LTA.
Bringing Relatives to work place

As a rule only IILM employees are permitted on campus. All others are required to register themselves at the gate and are permitted only as per policy. In case an employee needs to bring along their child, relative or friend to work they are required to seek prior approval from their Campus Head which then needs to be conveyed to the Security personnel.

While on Campus the employee would be fully responsible for the guest’s safety and ensure that he or she does not become a disturbing element for anyone. Any damage caused by the guest would have to be compensated for by the employee. In case of a minor, the employee would ensure that their child will not prevent them from fulfilling their job in a normal manner.

If guest is an adult their permission request would need to include details of their employer and purpose of them being allowed on campus.

Each guest must wear a ‘Guest of (name of employee)’ ID Card provided at the Gate.

Note: Leave is earned by duty or services and cannot be claimed as a matter of right. Hence, all leaves will be considered approved only if the same is sanctioned. You are required to proceed on leave only on its approval. Non-adherence to this will tantamount to misconduct and will be seriously viewed. Faculty Members may not avail Earned Leaves during teaching session.

General Conditions:

- Leave is earned by duty or services and it cannot be claimed as a matter of right.
- The leave year is from 1st July to 30th June of the next year.

In case of the exigencies of work, it will be open to the Competent Authority to refuse, postpone, revoke or reduce leave of any description.

- During the period of leave, staff members shall not take up or accept any employment or work either on remuneration or without remuneration.
- During the period of suspension, staff members shall not be granted any leave. However, during the pendency of disciplinary proceedings, the competent authority may grant leave.
- Sundays and or holidays as may be declared by institute, may be prefixed and/or suffixed to any kind of leave, but intervening Sundays and Holidays, will be counted as a part of leave.
- Combination of leave: Sick Leave/Emergency Leave cannot be availed of in conjunction with any other kind of leave/holidays.
- Before proceeding on any kind of leave, staff members shall intimate to the Competent Authority his/her address while she/he is on leave and shall keep the said authority informed of the changes in address, if any.
- Overstay beyond the sanctioned leave shall be treated as leave on loss of pay unless the concerned staff members has got the extension of leave sanctioned (by Competent Authority) before the expiry of the leave already sanctioned. However, before treating such unauthorized absence as leave on loss of pay, the competent authority shall satisfy itself that there were no extenuating circumstances, which prevented the staff members... from obtaining prior sanction for overstay. Over-stay of leave beyond 10 days without proper sanction can call for disciplinary action.

- National, Regional and Declared Holidays will be decided in December each year for every calendar year.
- On resignation from the service of the institute, if the employee has taken any Earned Leaves or Emergency Leaves/Sick Leaves, the same shall be considered as LWP.

Sick Leave / Emergency Leave:

- All Staff members and Faculty members who are on 6 day track will be granted sick leave/emergency leave for a maximum period of 12 days i.e. 6 Sick Leave and 6 Emergency Leave during the leave year. Staff members who are appointed during the course of the year shall be entitled to it on pro-rata basis. Faculty members who are on 5 days track are entitled to 5 Emergency Leave and 5 Sick Leave, those on 4 days track are entitled to 4 Emergency Leave & 4 Sick Leave and those on 3 day track are entitled to 3 Emergency Leave and 3.

- Sick Leave. For availing Sick Leave, all employees (Staff/Faculty Associates/Faculty) are to submit valid medical certificate.
- Sick leave/Emergency leave remaining unavailed will lapse at the end of the leave year.
- For availing sick leave, the employee has to submit a medical certificate issued by a registered medical practitioner having minimum MBBS qualification. In case the medical certificate tendered in lieu of the sick leave is not valid, the same shall be treated as cancelled and will be subject to deduction of salary and in such cases strict disciplinary action including termination of services can be taken place.
- Sick Leaves/Emergency Leaves may also be availed for diagnostic purposes, however prior approval must be taken and a certificate must be submitted for the same.

Earned Leave (EL):

EL will be credited to the leave account of employees after one year of service. EL credited to the individual’s account will be from the date of joining to 30th June and thereafter with respect to each year, i.e. on 1st July to following 30th June.

Procedure for EL Sanctioning:

- EL should be recommended by the immediate superior and approved by the Area Head/Line Manager and then it goes for the final approval.
- Requests for EL shall be made at least one month in advance.
- Weekly–off, declared holidays falling within the earned leave period will be counted as Earned leave.
- EL will be credited on pro-rata basis.
- An employee can avail ELs which he/she have been already earned and having in their leave account. The maximum accumulation is upto 30 days.
- EL can only be taken in non-academic period (i.e. during no academic activity and the session is closed).

Maternity Leave (ML):
This is applicable to all female staff who have completed one year of continuous service and have attended at least 80 days in office. ML may be granted to a female faculty / staff members for first two surviving children. A maximum period of six months of ML may be sanctioned all such employees with pay. Under the Maternity Benefit (Amendment) Act, 201this benefit could be availed for a period extending upto 8 weeks before the expected delivery date and remaining 18 weeks can be availed post child birth. For availing ML, they have to submit a medical advice letter from a qualified doctor. All relevant Govt regulations would be applicable with respect to ML, however, prior approval of Management would have to be taken for availing the same. The faculty/staff member will have to necessarily join back to duty on completion of Maternity Leaves; however, in case of medical exceptions a certificate may be submitted for the extension of leave which may be granted on its merits.

Leave without Pay (LWP):
In case of a staff members whose SL/EL has been exhausted or taken in excess of the entitlement or who has extended leave without informing the authorities of the University, those excess leave taken will be treated as leave without pay (LWP), if approved expert facto by the management. If the leave is not so authorized, it will be considered as violation of conduct rules and dealt accordingly.

Study Leave:
- A study leave/extended/deputation for a maximum period of two years may be available on recommendation of the Director only after the faculty members has completed at least five years of continuous service at the Institute.
- Eligibility of study leave would be assessed on how this leave would improve the intellectual capital of the institute.
- Should be applied 30 days in advance in the beginning or end of academic year.
• During the period of study leave the faculty member will not be entitled to draw any salary. He will also not be automatically entitled for promotion as a result of his receiving any advanced degree during the course of his study leave.

• During the period of study leave, the faculty will not engage in any gainful employment in other organization and an employee will have to sign an undertaking binding them to the terms of such leave.

• After completing the study leave, rejoining of the faculty will always depend upon the availability of vacant position in the concerned department.

Leave Applicable for Contractual Employees:
Contractual employees will be entitled to 6 Sick Leaves and 6 Emergency Leaves that is 12 leaves in a year and the 9 declared holidays (Gazetted, festival etc) and 2 restricted holidays. Contractual employees will be entitled to 15 Earned Leaves only after their contract is renewed after completion of 1 year.

Procedure for applying for Leaves:
Below is the SOP for leave application process which needs to be followed for all cases. No leave will be considered sanctioned outside this process.

• Application to be made in hard copy and given to your superior/line manager.

• Superior to recommend with reasons and send to the Head of Campus.

• Medical leave, if in an emergency can be taken with information but needs to be backed up by a medical certificate.

Leave cannot be claimed as a matter of right. Hence, all leaves will be considered approved only if the same is sanctioned. You are required to proceed on leave only on its approval. Non adherence to this will tantamount to misconduct and will be seriously viewed. Therefore, all unapproved leaves will be treated as without pay and salary deduction will take place accordingly.

Travel Policy – Rules & Guidelines

Objective
The objective of these rules is to provide a set of guidelines that govern travel for official purposes within or outside the country.
These rules are intended to provide reasonable and adequate allowances/reimbursements related to the responsibilities and needs of various categories of staff members in consistent with their status in the institute. It is expected that the entitlement should not exceed the need and these rules should not be mis-utilized.

For the use of personal vehicle for official work following compensation would be paid:
Two wheelers: Rs. 4.00 /KM
All 4 Wheelers: Rs. 7.00 /KM
The faculty members can call for a Taxi as per entitlement from the institute for official purposes, approved as per the rules.

Reimbursement of Expenses on Transfer
The faculty members who have been transferred from one place to another outside the NCR region shall be reimbursed expenses incurred for transport/carriage of household effects equivalent to the charges fixed for carriage of goods by train limited to the weight specified below:
A 1- 4 Metric Tons
A 2- 3 Metric Tons
A 3- 2 Metric Tons
A 4- 1 Metric Ton
A 5- 0.5 Metric Ton
Faculty members shall also be entitled to the actual fare by the mode of travel applicable to him in the travel rules of the institute for self, spouse, dependent, parents and children from the place of work to the place of transfer. These expenses can be claimed within 6 months from the date of shifting his family from one place to another. Faculty members who has been transferred from one place to another outside the NCR region shall be entitled for a special leave of 5 days as joining time provided he/she is shifting bag and baggage to that place, otherwise only the time taken in traveling from one place to another shall be treated as on duty.

Disturbance Allowance
On transfer, faculty members shall be entitled for a disturbance allowance equivalent to one month’s-basic salary, outside NCR.

International Travel Entitlement
Approval of President shall be required to undertake any International travel. Travelling and allied expenses shall be decided keeping in mind the pay scale and status of the employee, country of travel and other needs depending on the type of work assigned to the employee. Tour Advance Application Form for obtaining prior approval is appended below.

Generally, it is expected that the employee would stay in the Guest Room of the host institution / institute (if the visit concerns Global Study); otherwise, it is expected of the employee to exercise discretion in finalizing the hotel for stay and use of transport.

On return to India, the employee concerned would submit a “statement of expense” along with the supporting bills, whichever feasible.

Loan Policy

General

Loan to an employee of the organization is not a matter of right but purely at the discretion of the management. Loans are provided to an individual to meet his urgent / unexpected needs.

Types of loans

- House building or renovation.

Performance Management System

Objective
The Performance Management System has been designed so as to achieve organization goals and facilitate individuals in achieving professional aspirations.

The key objectives of the Performance Management System are to • Strengthen the Intellectual Asset base of the firm
• Align and harness employee energies towards achieving superior results for our Stakeholders
• Guide employees on the path to strengthening their professional capabilities
• Provide a rational and objective basis for identifying high potential to take on future leadership roles
• Provide an objective basis for rewarding and recognizing performance

The Performance Appraisal Cycle
Individual performance and contribution will be reviewed on a continuous basis through appropriate monitoring and feedback. In this appraisal the focus will be on review of performance against key deliverables and targets and on capabilities demonstrated in the course of the year.

The key outcomes of the end of year performance discussions will be
• An agreed set of action to be undertaken by the employee to improve performance.
• Identification of development needs
• Identification of potential for career progression and growth
• Basis for deciding performance awards

The appraisal conducted twice a year- December (review of progress on FAAP) & June (review and reward);

The Appraisal is based on the Faculty Annual Academic Plan (FAAP) that is filled by all faculty in the beginning of the new academic session;

Components of the appraisal system:

Parameters for assessment/appraisal are announced at the beginning of the year. These include assessment of faculty and their contribution to:

• Academics
• Mentoring
• Placements
• Admissions
• Research & Publications
• Availability to students and presence on campus

The purpose of the review process is to reflect on the achievements and challenges of the preceding specific issues will have been addressed during the course of the year, this is an opportunity to reflect on, and learn from, the experiences of the year as a whole.

• It also forms the basis of deciding the increments and charting growth map for all employees.
• The review should be an open and confidential dialogue between Dean/Director/Chairperson and the faculty, sharing and discussing.
• The individual's progress against the objectives previously set, taking into account any changes that have occurred during the year.
• Factual information such as feedback from students and other stakeholders, and module review
• The individual’s reflection on their own personal development during the year.
• Reflection on the individual's achievements in relation to the core values the individual is expected to uphold – these may refer to such areas as quality, teamwork, customer service, teaching, research and behavior.
A personal development plan sets out the actions people propose to take in order to learn and develop themselves, together with what the organization is committed to do to support them. Individuals take responsibility for formulating and implementing their plan in agreement with their appraiser. This is an ongoing process of continuous improvement and individuals must be encouraged to engage in a range of developmental activities, both inside and outside IILM, as appropriate. In some cases, development may be a requirement in order to meet expected standards of performance.

Confidentiality & IPRs Policy

All departing employees are required to handover his/her assigned responsibilities to the designated person and get a confirmation from him/her that all job responsibilities have been handed over to the satisfaction of the line manager. During the notice period the employee will help to complete all formalities including exit interview, handing over the no dues certificate and PF withdrawal forms. The HR/Administration will help in procuring the No Dues Certificate. On receipt of No dues Certificate, the full and final settlement of account would be prepared. Final payment cheque shall be issued along with Experience-cum-Relieving Certificate. This will be telephonically communicated to the employee who can come to either pick the cheque or it will be posted to the address as mentioned by them.

Please note once the duly completed no dues certificate reaches the office it will take 15 days to clear the account.

Retirement
Staff shall retire from service of the institute on attaining the age of superannuation fixed at 58 years. However, the retirement age may be changed from time-to-time by the management. To determine age of retirement, the official record of age available with the Institution shall be treated as final. However, fresh arrangement can be made to avail the service of the retired employees on consultancy basis on terms fixed by the management, which will be at the sole discretion of the Management.

In case of long unsanctioned leave
You will be considered to have voluntarily abandoned the service of the organization if you fail to report for duty, either after 5 days from the date of expiry of your sanctioned leave, or you are absent for a period of 5 consecutive days or more without sanction or if you turn up to rejoin duty after an unauthorized absence of more than 5 days and are unable to explain your absence to the satisfaction of the organization.
Return of IILM’s Property
You shall promptly upon the termination of your employment, deliver organization’s equipments and belongings (laptop, mobile phone, data card, books, visiting cards etc.), correspondence and all other documents, papers and records in whatever form, including but not limited to, electronically held data containing or referring to any client, proprietary or confidential information concerning the business of the Firm and of any of its Clients which may have been prepared by you or have come into your possession, custody or control in the course of your employment. You shall not keep any copies of these items.

No copy (printed or digital) of any document or proposals or report or contacts’ database can be made by the departing employee. Any violation of the institute’s intellectual property ownership or rights will be taken very seriously, and legal action may be initiated against such employees who are found to have taken any organization document or file or presentation or any other official records.

Issue of No objection certificate/ Recommendation & Relieving Letter
Any employee requiring such letter/s / NOC, may forward their request to their respective area heads/directors, who may forward recommendation of such letters to corporate HR at IILM, Gurgaon.

The Corporate HR team will issue such letters to the respective employee in its standard format.
